

I support the ARRL petition for the restructuring of the Amateur Radio Service with the following exception. In order to obtain the Amateur Extra Class license, all candidates should be required to demonstrate their ability to copy morse code at no less than 13 wpm. This will allow anyone who wishes to become an Amateur the ability to do so without a morse code requirement, while retaining some of the original fabric that is Amateur Radio. Thank you for your consideration.

Don Hartsfield

WB4FSU